

LEARNING to lead™

MINERVA

THE STEM PROGRAM

The Learning to Lead™ STEM program is for self-identified girls who are curious about STEM fields and want to develop the confidence to follow a non-traditional path.

25 curious problem-solvers in Grades 10-12 will have the opportunity to develop their confidence through virtually delivered workshops that identify their key strengths and core values, attain greater self-awareness and gain a supportive network of friends and mentors working in STEM fields.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

Learning to Lead™ STEM will focus on:

- Self-knowledge
- Being a leader
- Increasing confidence
- Being authentic
- Creating connections

PROGRAM 2021

Details of the 3-day online program:

Friday, Oct 1: 6pm-8pm PT

Saturday, Oct 2: 9:30am-5:30pm PT

Sunday, Oct 3: 9:30am-12pm PT

“

I recommend it to every passionate girl who wishes to feel the true essence of being a leader!
