

Paid Opportunity — Now Recruiting

Youth and Family Ambassador Program

Join the youth and family voices that are shaping the development of Integrated Youth Services (IYS) across Canada. We are looking for young people and families with lived experience to form a diverse national network of IYS Ambassadors.

What are Integrated Youth Services (IYS)?

The term “Integrated Youth Services” refers to a wide a variety of health and social services that work together through meaningful community partnerships to treat a young person holistically, whatever their needs may be.

Who can apply?

We are looking for youth (up to age 24) and family members/ caregivers who are passionate about youth health and wellness and/or have some involvement in youth mental health/substance use in their communities, whether that be building a wellness centre or starting a community dialogue. Applications will be accepted from individuals and small teams of two to three people.

What will I do as an Ambassador?

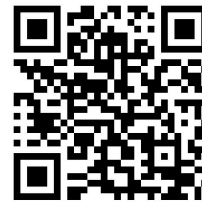

You will receive honoraria to:

- Attend virtual orientation and training meetings
- Work with your community to strengthen IYS
- Share your experiences and learnings in regular virtual cohort discussions with other ambassadors from across the country
- Participate in a community-led National IYS Conference in the spring of 2022

Foundry is an international leader in transforming access to health and social services for youth and families, offering health and wellness resources, services, and supports through Integrated Youth Service (IYS) centres across BC, foundrybc.ca, and Foundry Virtual.
